

CLUMBER PARK CLASSIC Saturday 27th August 2005

Clumber Park, is undoubtedly one of the most picturesque settings on which you are likely to find yourself racing in 2003. The park is located in Nottinghamshire and is easily found from either the north or the south with easy access from both the M1 and the A1. The Park is only four and a half miles south east of Worksop, and easily accessible from the A1 being only one mile from the A1/A57 junction, and is only eleven miles from M1 exit 30. The Race is set to the back drop of the National Trust's Gothic Revival Chapel on an expansive site which comprises of a wide expanse of parkland, peaceful woods, open heath and rolling farmland. In terms of course the swim will take place in Clumber Park Lake whilst the bike course consists of a two lap course through some beautiful countryside encompassing a significant number of closed roads within the park grounds and includes a long fast stretch on the surrounding roads with some testing climbs throughout. The run however is a predominantly flat course which involves a three lap circuit on shale paths all within the park grounds which makes it a perfect location for spectators. In terms of facilities the park has a well stocked Cafe immediately adjacent to the finish area and there are plenty of picnic spots, as well as some excellent traditional country pubs in the area. Accommodation can be located by visiting www.where2stay.uk.net/worksop. where a full listing of B&B's and Hotels are listed. Camping and Caravanning is also available on site by calling 01909 484 758 or 01909 482 303
